SmarTex - 2015 - Egypt

Dear Colleagues,

The organizers of the third World Textile Conference cordially invite you to attend "SMARTEX- 2015," on November 23-25, 2015, in New Faculty of Specific Education, Kaferelsheikh University, Egypt.

The Textile and Apparel Branch of the Home Economics Department, Faculty of Specific Education, Kaferelsheikh University and Ivanovo Polytechnical University, Russia, has organized the 5th World Textiles Conference "SMARTEX- 2015," to be held on November 23-25, 2015, in New Faculty of Specific Education, Kaferelsheikh University, Egypt.

SMARTEX-2015 will have participants from multidisciplinary backgrounds that will provide an excellent opportunity to merge International Scientists from Textile Teaching, Research and Development Institutions, and Industry to present and discuss the latest development in the general field of textile materials, technologies, fashion and marketing.

This event will focus on discussions of the latest innovative trends and technological advancements in textile processing and structure, along with their impacts on textile products obtained there from within the economy and environmental dimensions.

The attached flyer provides more details on conference location and topics. More details on due dates will be announced later. A website for the conference is being constructed and will be announced when completed.

We look forward to meeting you at New Faculty of Specific Education, Kaferelsheikh University, Egypt in 2015!

With warm regards,

Conference Organizers
