

South Valley University (SVU) Sustainability Bulletin 2020/2021

Research in water

Scholar output	FWCI	International collaboration	Citation
66	1.3	52	778

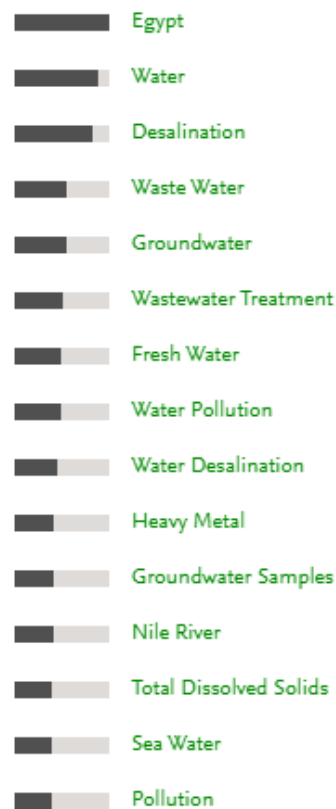

SVU has excellence output in this goal nationally and globally in the period of 2017 to 2021.

International Collaboration ⓘ ⓘ

Publications co-authored with Institutions in other countries/regions

The keywords of the resulted research is attached in this report according to SciVal which show diversity of water resources research.

The main source of clean water in Egypt is the river Nile which provides all people with clean water.

Campus population

SVU is the largest campus among Egyptian universities which located in Qena, city with (4046.85 m2) in addition of Higrada camps in red sea governate. The red sea campus is working hard to supply fresh water with collaboration with the governmental administration. The attached numbers are SVU population and all of them has the access to fresh water.

SVU capacity building for water and air pollution

SVU has a meteorological center that measure air pollution and engineering consultant for public service that provide society solution for environmental problems.

Department of Soil and Water

The department gives special attention to the soil as an environment for plant growth with an evaluation of its various properties, its quality, and the relationship of the soil with water and plants.

Water research and collaboration

SVU has many program and academic staff who are working in water research and wastewater treatment through research projects and providing society consultant.